Before we enter into the Agreement, we are required by law to assess the suitability of the rental agreement for each customer.

To assess suitability, we will make reasonable inquiries about:

- your requirements and objectives in relation to the rental agreement; and
- your financial situation.

a. Unsuitability criteria

We cannot offer a rental agreement to a customer if:

- it is likely that the customer will be unable to meet their financial obligations under the rental agreement or could only meet them with substantial hardship; or
- the rental agreement does not meet the customer's requirements or objectives.

b. Requesting a copy of our assessment notice

Before entering into the rental agreement or at any time during the first seven (7) years of the rental agreement, you can request a written copy of our assessment. There is no fee for requesting a copy of our assessment.

If you request a copy of the assessment before we enter into the rental agreement we will provide you with a copy of the assessment.

If you ask to see our assessment within the first two (2) years of the rental agreement, we will provide you with a written copy of our assessment within seven (7) business days after we receive your request.

If you ask to see our assessment 2-7 years after the start date of the rental agreement, we will provide you with a written copy of our assessment within twenty one (21) business days after we receive your request.

We do not have to provide the assessment if you don't enter into the rental agreement.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION: This information statement applies if you are an individual or strata corporation and, at the date of signing the rental agreement, you intend to use the goods wholly or predominantly for personal, domestic or household purposes. It does not apply to customers who are using the goods predominantly for business purposes. This information statement will apply if your rental agreement is deemed to be a “consumer lease” as defined in Part 11 of the National Credit Code.

INFORMATION STATEMENT

Subsection 175 (1) of the National Credit Code regulation 105 of the National Consumer Credit Protection Regulations 2010

Things you should know about your consumer lease

This statement tells you about some of the rights and obligations of yourself and your lessor. It does not state the terms and conditions of your lease.

The lease

1. How can I get details of my lease?

Your lessor must give you a copy of your consumer lease with this statement. Both documents must be given to you within 14 days after the lessor enters into the consumer lease, unless you already have a copy of the consumer lease.

If you want another copy of your lease write to your lessor and ask for one. Your lessor may charge you a fee. Your lessor has to give you a copy —

- within 14 days of your written request if the contract came into existence 1 year or less before your request; or
- otherwise within 30 days.

2. What should my lease tell me?

You should read your lease carefully.

Your lease should tell you about your obligations, and include information on matters such as —

- details of the goods which have been hired; and
- any amount you have to pay before the goods are delivered; and
- stamp duty and other government charges you have to pay; and
- charges you have to pay which are not included in the rental payments; and
- the amount of each rental payment; and
- the date on which the first rental payment is due and either the dates of the other rental payments or the interval between them; and
- the number of rental payments; and
- the total amount of rent; and
- when you can end your lease; and
- what your obligations are (if any) when your lease ends.

This information only has to be included in your lease if it is possible to give it at the relevant times.

If your lease does not tell you all these details, contact your credit provider’s external dispute resolution scheme, or get legal advice, for example from a community legal centre or Legal Aid, as you may have rights against your lessor.

3. Can I end my lease early?

Yes. Simply return the goods to your lessor. The goods may be returned in ordinary business hours or at any other time you and the lessor agree on or the court decides.

4. What will I have to pay if I end my lease early?

The amount the lease says you have to pay. If you have made rental payments in advance then it is possible that your lessor might owe you money if you return the goods early.

5. Can my lease be changed by my lessor?

Yes, but only if your lease says so.

6. Is there anything I can do if I think that my lease is unjust?

Yes. You should talk to your lessor. Discuss the matter and see if you can come to some arrangement.

If that is not successful, you may contact your credit provider's external dispute resolution scheme.

EXTERNAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION IS A FREE SERVICE ESTABLISHED TO PROVIDE YOU WITH AN INDEPENDENT MECHANISM TO RESOLVE SPECIFIC COMPLAINTS. YOUR CREDIT PROVIDER'S EXTERNAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROVIDER IS THE AUSTRALIAN FINANCIAL COMPLAINTS AUTHORITY AND CAN BE CONTACTED AT:

TELEPHONE: 1800 931 678

INTERNET: www.afca.org.au

GPO Box 3, Melbourne VIC 3001

Alternatively, you can go to court. You may also wish to get legal advice, for example from a community legal centre or Legal Aid, and/or make a complaint to ASIC. ASIC can be contacted on 1300 300 630 or through ASIC's website at <http://www.asic.gov.au>.

The goods

7. If my lessor writes asking me where the goods are, do I have to say where they are?

Yes. You have 7 days after receiving your lessor's request to tell your lessor. If you do not have the goods you must give your lessor all the information you have so they can be traced.

8. When can my lessor or its agent come into a residence to take possession of the goods?

Your lessor can only do so if it has the court's approval or the written consent of the occupier which is given after the occupier is informed in writing of the relevant section in the National Credit Code.

General

9. What do I do if I can not make a rental payment?

Get in touch with your lessor immediately. Discuss the matter and see if you can come to some arrangement.

You can ask your lessor to change your lease in a number of ways —

- to extend the term of your lease and reduce rental payments; or
- to extend the term of your lease and delay rental payments for a set time; or
- to delay rental payments for a set time.

10. What if my lessor and I can not agree on a suitable arrangement?

If the lessor refuses your request to change the rental payments, you can ask your lessor to review this decision if you think it is wrong.

If the lessor still refuses your request, you can complain to the external dispute resolution scheme that your lessor belongs to. Further details about this scheme are set out below in question 12.

11. Can my lessor take action against me?

Yes, if you are in default under your lease. But the law says that you can not be unduly harassed or threatened for rental payments. If you think you are being unduly harassed or threatened, contact your credit provider's external dispute resolution scheme or ASIC, or get legal advice.

12. Do I have any other rights and obligations?

Yes. The law will give you other rights and obligations. You should also READ YOUR LEASE carefully.

IF YOU HAVE ANY DOUBTS, OR WANT MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT YOUR CREDIT PROVIDER. YOU MUST ATTEMPT TO RESOLVE YOUR COMPLAINT WITH YOUR CREDIT PROVIDER BEFORE CONTACTING YOUR CREDIT PROVIDER'S EXTERNAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION SCHEME. IF YOU HAVE A COMPLAINT WHICH REMAINS UNRESOLVED AFTER SPEAKING TO YOUR CREDIT PROVIDER YOU CAN CONTACT YOUR CREDIT PROVIDER'S EXTERNAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION SCHEME OR GET LEGAL ADVICE.

PLEASE KEEP THIS INFORMATION STATEMENT. YOU MAY WANT SOME INFORMATION FROM IT AT A LATER DATE.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Common questions & answers with us

Every day, more and more Australians use us to keep up-to-date with the very latest technology for their homes and offices. We are delighted to welcome you as one of them.

This document contains important information about your rental agreement (“Agreement”) that you will find useful both now and in the future. Please take a few moments to read it and for future reference be sure to retain in a secure place along with the Agreement.

Unless otherwise defined or the context requires otherwise, capitalised terms used in these Questions & Answers have the meanings given to them in the Agreement. Reference to Clauses in these Questions & Answers are references to Clauses in the Agreement.

1. Who is responsible if the Goods break?

The Goods may come with certain guarantees under Australian Consumer Law, including that they will be of acceptable quality. We also have responsibility for accidental damage as set out in paragraph 3. In either of these circumstances you can call us to see if you are entitled to a remedy (e.g. repair or replacement of the goods). The Goods may also come with a manufacturer’s warranty in addition to your rights under Australian Consumer Law or you may be able to claim under your own insurance. Otherwise, you are responsible for maintaining the Goods.

2. FlexiCare Program

If your rented laptop computer, smartphone, tablet and camera Goods require repairs, you are entitled to free loaned goods through our FlexiCare Program in some circumstances. We will endeavour to provide the Goods to you within two (2) business days from the time of your request to us (provided that delivery is to an Australian metropolitan area and your request is made during business hours). These goods are known as “Loaner Goods” and are discussed in Clause 13.10.

Loaner Goods include goods which we may provide under the Loaner Goods program from time to time, including: laptop computer, smartphone, tablet device or camera. Loaner Goods are subject to availability.

Call us on 1800 240 102 and we will make the arrangements. Courier delivery and collection will be at our cost. See the Agreement for full details.

3. Who is responsible if the Goods are stolen, accidentally lost or accidentally damaged?

Except in the circumstances set out in Clauses 13.1 and 13.2, we retain and bear the risk of theft, accidental loss or accidental damage to the Goods anywhere in Australia or New Zealand or occurring anywhere in the world during a trip of not more than twenty eight (28) days’ duration. This feature is known as “FlexiCare Protect” and is set out in Clauses 13.1 to 13.4.

We also allow you to terminate the Agreement early without payment of the Termination Amount in the event of unemployment, disablement, terminal illness or death. In the event of involuntary unemployment, you can also obtain a temporary release from Monthly Rental Payments for three (3) months. This feature is known as “FlexiCare Protect Platinum” and is set out in Clauses 13.5 to 13.9.

For terms, conditions and exclusions please see Clause 13.1.

Please note – extra care is needed for portable Goods.

You should always keep the Goods in a safe place. Please do not leave the Goods unattended in a public place or in an unoccupied motor vehicle unless the vehicle is locked and the Goods are out of sight in a locked compartment permanently fixed to the vehicle. Your liability may increase if you fail to ensure that the Goods are kept safe and secure. See Clause 13.1 for details.

4. How do I report an incident?

Just call us on 1800 240 102 and ask for an Incident Notification form. Our Customer Service Centre will help you through the process.

5. What happens at the end of my Agreement?

Because the Agreement is a rental arrangement, you are not buying the Goods. This means that you must choose one of the options set out under the heading “End of Term options”. Options 1 to 5 set out in these End of Term options are subject to our agreement.

Towards the end of the Term we will contact you and remind you that it is time to consider your End of Term options. See Clause 12 for full details of the options.

When you return the Goods to us at the end of the Term, you must remove all personal information from the Goods before returning them to us – we are not liable for any consequences arising from your failure to do this.

6. If you don't elect an End of Term option

If no End of Term option is elected at the end of the Term, the Agreement will defer to a month to month arrangement whereby the Monthly Rental Payments will continue until the Goods are returned.

7. Upgrading the performance of the Goods

If you want to modify the Goods to improve its performance you must receive our written consent. Please notify us beforehand by phone or in writing.

8. What happens if I can no longer meet my payment obligations?

If you are having difficulties meeting your payment obligations, you can contact us on 1800 240 102 to discuss your options.

9. How to have Double Time at the end of the Term

At the end of the Term, you can ask us to double the length of the Term in return for you paying the Double Time Payment.

If you request Double Time and we agree, you will not be required to make any further Monthly Rental Payments during the Double Time Period, but all other terms and conditions of the Agreement will continue to apply. This means, for example, that you will be entitled to the FlexiCare Program you signed up to at the beginning of your Agreement, including FlexiCare Protect and FlexiCare Loaner during the Double Time Period.

At the end of the Double Time Period, you can make an offer to purchase the Goods or return the Goods. However, we reserve the right to accept or reject the offer to purchase the Goods.

THIS AGREEMENT IS BETWEEN YOU AND US

PART A: TERMS & CONDITIONS

1. TITLE AND OWNERSHIP OF THE GOODS

- (a) We are the owner of the Goods. You only have the right to use the Goods during the Term.
- (b) You acknowledge that you have rights in the Goods that are rented, leased, or bailed to you under this Agreement, when you obtain possession of the Goods.
- (c) You must protect our ownership of the Goods and not attempt to sell, hire, dispose or deal with the Goods in any way or permit any Security Interest that is not in our favour other than in accordance with this Agreement.
- (d) You acknowledge that, subject to the PPS Act, if the Goods give rise to proceeds (by being dealt with or otherwise), the Security Interest:
 - (i) continues in the Goods; and
 - (ii) attaches to the proceeds (and nothing in this Agreement will be taken to provide otherwise).

- (e) You acknowledge, if you dispose of or otherwise deal with the Goods or an interest in them in breach of Clause 1(c), that we have not authorised the disposal or agreed that the dealing would extinguish our interest (including any Security Interest), and that our interest (including any Security Interest) continues in the Goods or interest, despite the disposal or dealing.

2. DISCLAIMER OF WARRANTIES

- (a) Upon delivery of the Goods you must inspect the Goods and satisfy yourself that the Goods are in good operating order and condition.
- (b) You must rely on your own judgment as to the:
 - (i) quality and condition of the Goods;
 - (ii) fitness and suitability of the Goods for any particular purpose; and
 - (iii) performance of services provided by third parties.
- (c) Except for applicable non-excludable consumer guarantees, rights or warranties under consumer laws (“Consumer Guarantees”) we do not give any warranties or guarantees in relation to the Goods or any services.
- (d) Nothing in this Agreement is to be taken to exclude, restrict or modify any Consumer Guarantees we are prohibited by law from excluding, restricting or modifying. To the extent that a Consumer Guarantee applies (and where the relevant goods or services are not of a kind ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic or household use) our liability for breaches of that Consumer Guarantee is limited, as far as the law permits, to the repair or replacement of the Goods or the re-supply of the services or the cost of these.

- (e) To the extent permitted by law, we exclude all liability for indirect or consequential damage, loss of income, loss of profit or interruption of business.
- (f) No salesman or agent of the seller of the Goods are authorised to act as our agent to agree or negotiate or change any term of this Agreement or to make any warranties or representations about it or the Goods, oral or otherwise. You may have rights against the Supplier and/or seller if any of their warranties or representations are incorrect, or against us (in particular if we are a “linked credit provider” of the Supplier and/or seller under the National Credit Code or any other consumer laws).

3. PAYMENTS

(iv) you must pay us any other Fees or other amounts payable under this Agreement in accordance with this Agreement.

- (c) If the Date Goods Taken is before the Start Date, the:
 - (i) Term will commence on the Date Goods Taken; and
 - (ii) Term will be extended by the number of days between the Date Goods Taken and the Start Date.

For the avoidance doubt the End Date will not change.

- (d) Rental Payments are due monthly in advance on the Monthly Rental Payment Date (except where there is an Interim Rental Payment payable, in which case the First Rental Payment is payable partly in arrears and partly in advance as indicated on the Signature Page).
- (e) If the Start Date or a Monthly Rental Payment Date does not fall on a Business Day, payment is due on the next Business Day.
- (f) Unless we otherwise agree in writing, all Rental Payments must be made by direct debit from your nominated financial account or credit card.
- (g) All Rental Payments, once paid, are not refundable. If you believe that a Rental Payment was made in error, if you believe that we have not complied with this Agreement or if you have a claim against us based on our conduct, follow our dispute resolution process as set out in the Direct Debit Request and Credit Guide.

- (h) You must pay all amounts due under this Agreement in full without set-off or counterclaim, and without any deduction in respect of taxes unless a law provides otherwise. This obligation is absolute, unconditional and continues, even if the Goods become unusable as a result of any act or omission of yours, or of any person to whom you have lent, given or otherwise passed custody or care of the Goods, including a family member, friend or courier. If you wish to dispute any amount payable, please follow our dispute resolution process as set out in the Direct Debit Request and Credit Guide.

5. LOCATION AND INSPECTION

- (a) Unless the Goods are portable, you must not, without our prior written consent, remove the Goods from the Approved Goods Location.
- (b) You agree to provide our authorised agents and us with reasonable access to inspect the Goods to confirm the existence, condition and proper maintenance. - (c) If you fail to provide access to us and/or our authorised agents, we may enter the premises, or authorise our agents to enter the premises, where we believe the Goods are located in order to confirm the existence, condition and proper maintenance.
